Coram:- J.H. BHATIA, J
18th April, 2007.

P.C.

Heard Mr. Khairdi learned Counsel for the applicants and Ms. Gajre learned APP. The applicants in both these applications were convicted for the offences punishable under section 143 and 147 of IPC and on the first count they were sentenced to undergo RI for 6 months and to pay fine of Rs. 200/- and on 2nd count they were sentenced to undergo RI for 2 years and to pay fine of Rs. 300/-. They have preferred appeals against conviction and sentence. The appeals are admitted. By these applications the applicants seek to be released on bail pending final hearing and disposal of this application.

2. The applicants were on bail till the trial and there is no allegation of misuse of bail. They are now in custody since 13-2-2007 i.e the date of conviction. Taking into consideration the short sentence and nature of offences, I find that the applicants may be granted bail.

3. The applicants are granted bail on same terms and conditions as before the trial Court subject to their furnishing fresh bail bonds and depositing the fine amount. Both the applications stands disposed off.
